

MEDICINAL.

There was a cry in the streets. People rushed from their doors and strained their eyes on the struggling ballroom fighter for life. Even the poor, panting sufferer in the sick room was forgotten while the tragedy of the air. Then they went back to the terrible struggle for life they had just witnessed. It did not occur to them that under their very eyes a more terrible, more pathetic struggle was going on daily.

There can be nothing more pitiful than the struggle the consumptive makes against disease. The greatest help in this struggle is gained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures obstinate coughs, weak and bleeding lungs, emaciation, and other ailments which if neglected or unskillfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption.

"In this one of my daughters was suffering on account of a severe cough, hectic fever, wasting of flesh and other symptoms of diseased lungs," writes Rev. Joseph H. Pepperman of Harrison Springs, Ireland Co., N. C. "I promptly gave her Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with gratifying success, and she now enjoys excellent health. This being true, I heartily endorse your medicines."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery."

[COMMUNICATED.] TRAVELERS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

In Thursday's issue of the Gazette I read a communication, concerning the Travelers' Protective Association of America, signed "Toeca," and beg to use your valued columns to express my thanks for the opportunity offered to call public attention to our organization. While I am very grateful to "Toeca," at the same time I must state that he has an erroneous idea as regards the objects of the T. P. A., and feel it my duty to put him on the right track. In his article he quotes the eligibility clause quite correctly, and had he made himself equally familiar with the objects of the association, his communication would have read quite differently, I think, or would not have been written. The objects of the association are as follows:

1st.—To secure the repeal of all laws imposing or enforcing a license tax on commercial travelers. 2d.—To secure recognition from railroads, and obtain on favorable terms of transportation and baggage as are given to any other class of travelers, and to adjust all differences between railroads and commercial travelers on a fair, equitable business basis. 3d.—To secure hotel accommodations commensurate with price paid. 4th.—To elevate the social and moral character of commercial travelers as a profession, and to bring about the better acquaintance of members. 5th.—To provide a benefit fund in case of death by accident or injury by accident. 6th.—To secure business connections for unemployed members.

If "Toeca" will read again carefully the eligibility clause he will find it does not require that a man shall travel, and if he meets other requirements, he is at liberty to travel from home to shop and back again daily. "Salary Travel"—I cannot see the connection. "Will it be wholesome people stand this?" Well, I guess. A salesman is injured by accident, is incapacitated for weeks, or perhaps months, his house in caring for their trade covers his territory with another, whose expenses and salary must be paid. The injured salesman receives indemnity from the T. P. A. of $25 per week, not exceeding 52 weeks. Does the house feel obliged to pay injured man's salary (and increase their own expense) under such circumstances? Having stated objects of association, given an illustration, in answer to "Will the wholesome people stand this?" I would like to give reasons why Toeca's travel becomes a member (providing of course he is eligible). First, because it is your duty, as it should be your pleasure, to sustain and help, by your personal influence and co-operation, an association which has through its working committees and officers, nullified and defeated the infamous license law which imposed upon commercial travelers an occupation tax, and which subjected them to the same expropriation that criminals are compelled to submit to, which secured a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States declaring such occupation taxes unconstitutional, and which has secured enormous concessions in transportation rates, including week end tickets, and thousand mile tickets at reduced rates, and that great boon and convenience to commercial travelers, the interchangeable mileage tickets now in force and rapidly becoming introduced over all lines of railroads. This association through its exclusive effort, secured an amendment to the Interstate Commerce act, in the Fifty-third Congress, permitting railroads to issue interchangeable mileage tickets and to give special free baggage privileges with mileage tickets, and soon expects to have added to President Roosevelt's Cabinet a Secretary of Commerce.

Second, because it exerts a powerful influence for good over its members; it creates a more friendly feeling of confidence between employer and employee by bringing them more closely together in social and business meetings; it utterly discounts the boycott of contracts by rebelling customers or buyers, thus encouraging us all to honestly strive for that commercial supremacy of which any people may be proud, in the upbuilding of our cities and States.

By the way, the State association meets in convention in Alexandria April 25th and 26th and if Toeca will attend business meetings we shall be pleased to have him. We also invite him to accompany us on an excursion to Mount Vernon and Arlington, and on our return help us discuss a banquet.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Mr. James H. Barr, a well-known resident of Winchester made what will likely prove a successful attempt at suicide at his home yesterday morning. He was slowly dying from cancer, and while delirious from pain, secured a razor and slashed his throat from ear to ear. During the civil war Mr. Barr served in the Confederate army in Pierce's Cavalry. In 1862 he was married near Winchester. In the midst of the wedding festivities the house was surrounded by Union troops, and the groom was carried off to prison, where he remained for a year. He is seventy-two years of age, and has a family.
